The Pink House Internship is a ten-month experience that places interns in a community setting while exploring urban ministry and growing in leadership development. Participants volunteer 5 hours per week to their local agency, participate in a weekly house meeting to study core content curriculum on urban issues, and take intentional time to spend with housemates and in the community. Interns are exposed to various avenues of service including hospitality, and taken to various training events including a 5-day out of town conference, two weekend retreats, various workshops and community events. Students live in community together in the Pink House, and are able to hold a part-time job and/or be a student through the extent of the program.

Fees/Finances: The Internship Program has no overall cost; however, rent is to be paid at the beginning of each month in the amount of $175/person or $325/couple. Wireless internet is available at a small fee. Personal expenses are handled individually. Most training event fees are covered, small expenses might be incurred at an event (such as personal meals) from time to time.

Before submitting this application with deposit, please make a photocopy for your records.
